

Game over view

Title: Wuziqi

Target Platform: This game is designed for both desktop and mobile platforms

Game Genre: It is a classic chess game originated in China and popular in East Asian area.

Games Objective: The first player to align five of their pieces in a row (horizontally, vertically, or diagonally) win the game

Rules of the Game:

- Wuziqi is played on a grid board
- Pieces are placed on the intersection point of two lines.
- There are two colour pieces, black and white.
- Black colour player always plays first
- In each turn player placing one piece on an empty spot on the board
- Player has 5min to play the piece in each turn, once the time exceeds, turn passed to the other player.

Some add on features to the game:

- Players can withdraw their last movement one time in each game.
- Once each player has clicked ready button on their side, the game will start within 3s countdown.
- Player can use reset button to restart the whole game, or clear game board button to restart the round.
- Player can also choose game mode to be either BO1 (Best of 1), BO3 (Best of 3) or BO5 (Best of 5)

- Players can also click on their icon to change their icon image.
- Player can also click on the button representing their piece colour to switch colour.

Game Mechanics:

In each turn player placing one piece on an empty spot on the board, and try to align five of their pieces.